Too Much! provides a platform for investigation and negotiation - through live performance and video art - of queer as an aesthetic, and tactic. Working the margins of both mainstream and LGBT cultures, Too Much! strives to offers a temporal community in the borderlands of artistic contagion, exchange, friction, and tourism. Crashing the limits of neatly package identity-based events, Too Much! brings together artists and audiences on the basis of a shared appreciation of experimental, untried, queer art.

TOO MUCH! is instigated and curated by Julie Phelps and Keith Hennessy. This event is produced by Zero Performance and THEOFFCENTER.

Zero Performance is fiscally sponsored by CounterPulse. Additional support provided by a grant awarded from:
